FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: April 3, 2026

Susan E. Farley, Esq. Receives 2026 Distinguished Service Medal of the Linn Inn Alliance American Inns of Court

(Albany) – Heslin Rothenberg Farley & Mesiti P.C. is pleased to announce that partner Susan E. Farley was awarded the 2026 Linn Inn Alliance Distinguished Service Medal at the Linn Alliance Reception in New York City on March 27, 2026. The award recognizes individuals who have demonstrated exceptional dedication and long-standing service to the mission and programs of the Linn Inn Alliance of the American Inns of Court, particularly within the intellectual property law community.

The Linn Inn Alliance Distinguished Service Medal honors members who have made significant contributions to promoting the values of the American Inns of Court, including professionalism, mentorship, and excellence in legal advocacy. Recipients are recognized for sustained efforts that strengthen the intellectual property bar and advance the educational and collegial goals of the Inns of Court.

Ms. Farley has been actively involved in the intellectual property community for many years and has contributed substantially to the advancement of the American Inn of Court model among IP practitioners. Through her participation and leadership, she has helped foster mentorship, professional development, and collaboration among attorneys practicing in intellectual property law.

At Heslin Rothenberg Farley & Mesiti P.C., Ms. Farley focuses her practice on intellectual property litigation and counseling, representing clients in matters involving patents, trademarks, trade dress, and related IP disputes. Her work spans a wide range of technologies and industries, and she regularly advocates for clients in complex intellectual property matters.

The firm congratulates Ms. Farley on this recognition and her continued contributions to the intellectual property legal community.
