HESLIN ROTHENBERG FARLEY & MESITI P.C.
IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE RACHEL LEAH PEARLMAN AS NEW PARTNER

Albany, NY: Heslin Rothenberg Farley & Mesiti P.C., an Intellectual Property law firm based in Albany and Rochester, New York, is pleased to announce the promotion of Rachel Leah Pearlman to the position of Partner with the firm. Heslin Rothenberg Farley & Mesiti P.C. is the largest law firm dedicated exclusively to Intellectual Property law and related litigation in upstate New York with 18 partners and a total of 30 attorneys and patent agents.

Rachel focuses her practice on information technology law, including intellectual property prosecution, litigation, and licensing. Rachel is especially active in the computer systems, computer science, electronics, electronic commerce, and electronic communications areas.

Ms. Pearlman worked in the information technology field for almost a decade. During this time, she was employed as both a programmer and a project manager and served as vice president of an information technology consulting company, where she managed the design, development, and implementation of core systems for major financial institutions, leading non-profits and Fortune 500 companies.

“We are delighted to have Rachel become a Partner with the firm. Rachel has shown herself to be an exceptional Intellectual Property law attorney with exceptional abilities in the computer science field.” said Nicholas Mesiti, the firm’s Managing Partner.

Rachel received her Juris Doctor cum laude from Brooklyn Law School (2007) and earned both a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Science degree in the interdisciplinary field of Science and Technology Studies from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Prior to joining Heslin Rothenberg Farley & Mesiti P.C., she worked in the intellectual property practice in the New York City office of an Am Law 100 general practice firm.

Rachel lives in Albany, New York with her husband and her three sons.
